WAYS TO USE THESE PAGES

Color with crayons, colored pencils, markers, or paint.

Display finished artwork on the refrigerator, bedroom wall, classroom, or church bulletin board.

Create thoughtful gifts for family members, teachers, caregivers, or friends.

Use during quiet time, Sunday school, homeschool lessons, classrooms, therapy sessions, or family activities.

Encourage children to talk about kindness, love, faith, hope, and helping others while they color.

TIPS FOR BEST RESULTS

Print on standard 8.5" x 11" paper.

For a sturdier coloring page, print on cardstock.

Place completed artwork in a binder to create your own coloring book.

Laminating finished pages makes wonderful keepsakes.

FUN IDEAS!

- ★ Use glitter or stickers to decorate the angels' halos and wings.
- ★ Add watercolor paint for a soft, beautiful background.
- ★ Use the pages for a "Kindness Challenge" — do a kind act and color an angel!
- ★ Thank someone special by coloring an angel and giving it to them.
